

Thank you!

We've reached 2 million Dementia Friends! Two million people committed to making communities more dementia-friendly. That's a lot of people, and an incredible achievement!

To recognise the part you've played in reaching this amazing milestone, I'm sending you a limited edition "Dementia Friends 2 million" badge. Wear it with pride, because you've earned it!

So what does this all mean?

In our recent Champions survey, you told us you'd like to know more about the national impact of Dementia Friends. We asked thousands of Friends, and this is what they told us:

And these are the actions they told us they have committed to:

As a Dementia Friend I will...

Don't forget that we also share details of inspiring personal actions in your monthly Champions newsletter. Thank you for everything that you do as a Champion and for helping us to create dementia-friendly communities, we simply couldn't do it without you.

Have fun planning your next Information Session, and bring on the next million!
