

Examples of computing work

Paint outcomes:

Logo outcomes:

PowerPoint outcomes:

4 Default Section

Ancient Egypt

by emma

Who they were

- The Ancient Egyptians were an ancient civilization which existed from around 3100 to 332 BC.
- The Egyptians had many gods which they worshipped at their most important, including the pharaoh, Anubis and the falcon Horus.
- Most of the Egyptians lived by the Nile, a river which runs through the country and across all of the people in Egypt today (the longest the earth has).

farming

- When the land that they farmed, the Egyptian would grow a large variety of crops including wheat, barley, figs and lots more.
- Of the crops that they grew, their most important farmed was grain.

The land

- The ancient Egyptians lived mainly around the Nile and the northern coast of Africa because the rest of the land was hard to grow crops.
- Their constant success was because of their skills at adapting to the conditions of the Nile river valley.

cleoptra

- Cleopatra is a very famous beautiful lady who is the queen and empress of Egypt.
- She lived in a time between 69 BC and 30 BC.
- She was the daughter of Ptolemy XIII and she was the sister of Ptolemy XIV.
- She was the last pharaoh of the Ptolemaic dynasty.
- She was the last pharaoh of the Ptolemaic dynasty.
- She was the last pharaoh of the Ptolemaic dynasty.

pyramids

The pyramids are the oldest that were built for the pharaohs - the king. They are in a pyramid's the great pyramids, built for pharaohs.

World war II

by Chouab

Who were the main leaders of World War II?

- The most main leaders in WW2 were: Joseph Stalin, Adolf Hitler, Winston Churchill, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Joseph Stalin.
- These leaders were leaders of different countries.
- They all became friends in fight of Hitler's troops.

The Blitz

- The Blitz was a terrible moment for the UK because the Germans would drop 300 tonnes of bombs on the docks and the East end of London. The women and children would be because the Germans would drop toxic bombs which had poison the area and would kill a lot of people.

WINSTON CHURCHILL

- Winston Churchill helped London a lot because he brought hope and boosted the English army in the darkest moments.
- Winston Churchill was the prime minister.
- In 1940 children in the UK would go to the country side where there would be no fighting and it would be safe.

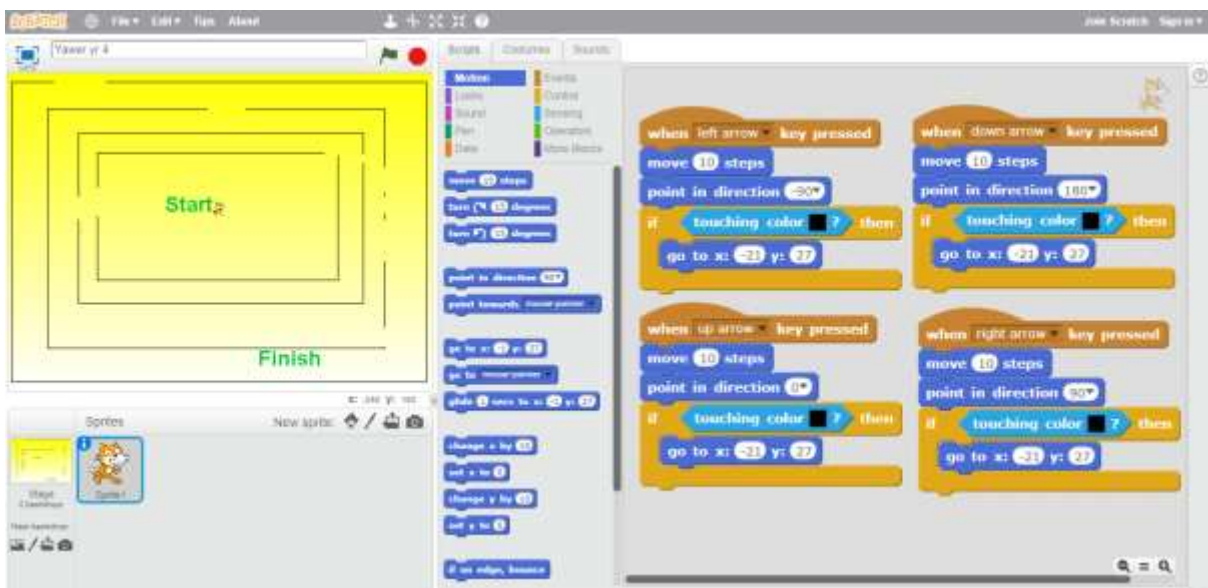

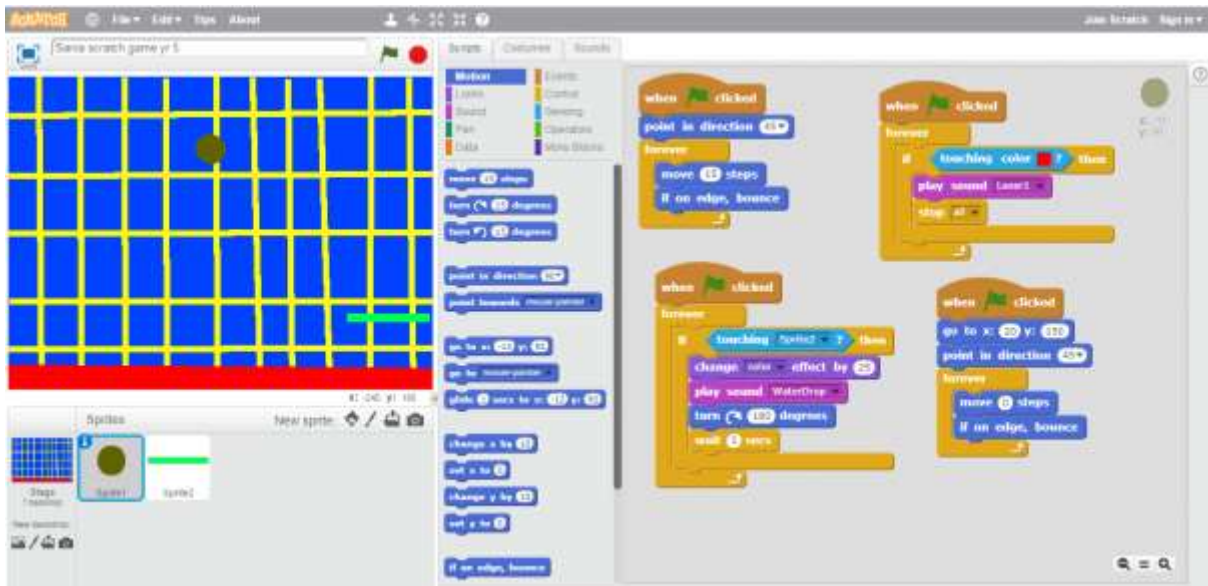

COUNTRY FLAGS

GAS MASKS

By September 1939 more than 18 million gas masks had been given out. These were given to British soldiers. They were used to protect them from gas attacks.

Why were people given gas masks?
Why were people given gas masks during the war?

Scratch outcomes:

2code outcomes:

